

Emily Watts Equestrian

Emily is a UKCC Level 2 Coach, a Pony Club Accredited Trainer and is currently training for her British Dressage Judges certification. A sympathetic yet effective rider having seen success at National Level Dressage competition with a string of horses, she currently trains with Patsy Bartram. Emily was runner up at the Prestigious British Dressage Young Professional awards at Talland in 2017 and is keen to support and advise the next generation moving into the industry.
